22 New York County, New York for over a quarter century,

Oui facit per alium facit per se

2 NYCTA is the employer at issue. All individuals,
3
4 yet known and unknown, involved in the unlawful
5 concerted adverse job actions work for the same. NYCTA
6
7 is a public entity pursuant to 42 U.S.C §12131, etc.
8
9 NYCTA resides at 130 Livingston Street, Brooklyn New 10 York, within this Court's Jurisdiction. NYCTA receives 11 federal funds.

12 NYCTA, via an unnamed "Transit Source" (i.e. Kristen 13 Nolan, esq.)published a maliciously false, defamatory,
14 libelous, slanderous, damaging hit piece on Sunday, 15 March 29, 2015 about this case, and others, in order to 16 potentially obstruct justice and falsely influence a 17 prospective jury and otherwise harm Petitioner. This 18 resulted in a substantiated injury claim for stress in 19 front of ALJ Patricia Harris, who concluded the article
20 was defamatory, i.e. Collateral Estoppel. This claim 21 remains unpaid one year later, additional retaliation.

DEPRAVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER COLOR OF LAW

SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT AND AFFIRMATION

JURY TRIAL DEMAND - 7

1. On February 26, 2001, Petitioner was hired
2 as a safety sensitive Train Operator by the
3 New York City Transit Authority, off an open
4 competitive civil service list, scoring 97.5
5 out of 100 and passing all requirements.

6 Plaintiff noticed the NYCTA medical 7 department of the pre-existing conditions of 8 myopia and photophobia and supplied medical 9 documentation of the same, as per rule<sup>2</sup>.

10 Petitioner has been required since to wear
11 the correct corrective lenses while 12 operating a train and has done so since 13 hiring date.

14 2. In 2005 Complainant became a Shop Steward in 2009 was elected a Delegate and appointed a contractual Safety Representative in 2010.

3. In 2008 Plaintiff filed U-28203 with the New York State Public Employment Relations Board against NYCTA, due to unsafe, harassing, distracting activity by Train Service Supervisor (hereon in TSS) LoBianco.

4. Approximately once a month TSS LoBianco, Petitioners assigned TSS<sup>3</sup>, would enter the operating cab and proceed to harass, threaten, mock, interfere and distract Train Operator Brian Burke while train was in motion. This was also reported to Transit and Federal EEOC.

5. Ms. Kristen Nolan, esq. was Counsel for the Authority at the PERB settlement in 2008.

Ms. Nolan became aware of Complainant's corrective lens requirement at that time.

26                   <sup>3</sup> All hourly workers in Rapid Transit Operations are 27 assigned to a TSS each pick, i.e. twice yearly and each TSS has 28 approximately 30 assignees. The assigned TSS performs all investigations of assignees.

- 1       6.       At the 2008 settlement hearing ALJ Philip
2                   Meier negotiated a written settlement
3                   agreement between NYCTA General Counsel
4                   Martin B. Schnabel, Kristen Nolan and 5                   Complainant. The harassment by TSS LoBianco
6                   ceased.
7
8        7.       In 2011 in Concourse Yard, Bronx, Petitioner
9                   was the witness to a confrontation between 10                  Train Operator Estes, a proud African-11                  American Air Force Veteran, and TO Daniel C.
12                  of Irish-Catholic ethnicity.
13
14       8.       Plaintiff was ordered by then Line
15                  Superintendent O'Toole to write a written 16                  report on the event.
17
18       9.       Various employees suggested Petitioner lie

20                  presumably to have Complainant avoid 21                  harassment, hostility and adverse job

7 picked the 'extra list'.<sup>4</sup> As retaliation,
8 the Authority started assigning only less
9 senior road jobs to, now senior on the list,
10 TO Burke. A grievance was filed and 11 Complainant was forced to pick off the list.
12
13 12. In August 2012, in order to cease adverse 14 job assignments, Petitioner accepted a 15 promotion to Train Dispatcher.

17. On first day back ATD Odums denied pay to return a transit radio, while ordering work to be performed free and was extremely hostile and harassing.

18. In 2013 ATD Odums harassment, retaliation and hostility only increased.

19. Complainant, as a Safety Representative, attempted to and did in fact call Vice President Kevin Harrington of Local 100 to report a grave unsafe condition in Concourse Yard Barn<sup>7</sup>. ATD Odums interrupted call for no legitimate reason and ordered plaintiff to never use transit phones for any purpose<sup>8</sup>.

7 Complainant, while walking to his train, observed the safety chains that chock the trains in the barn were unpainted, i.e. camouflage, and would, if missed, derail train. This is a violation of Bulletin and wildly unsafe. It was successfully reported and remedied much later.

  32. Kristen Nolan, esq. filed three perjurious sworn Affidavits purportedly signed by ATD Odums.
  33. Petitioner filed a Notice of Claim in 2012 against the NYCTA.

4                   Ms. Nolan questioned Complainant for the 10       36.     Petitioner, in order to stop brutal

13                   picked a job with more cab time and an

15                   harassment ended in June 2013 only because 16                   Mr. Odums had no more access to do so.

training on regular days off. Grievant prevailed in front of arbitrator Richard Adelman.<sup>9</sup> This victory cost the Authority approximately $1,000,000.

44. Petitioner has approximately a dozen grievances the Authority refuses to hear and have been pending for years.

45. On April 14, 2013, according to testimony by Labor Relations Director Akselrod at a NY
WCB hearing, Ms. Nolan received a coincidental epiphany or second sight.<sup>10</sup> She called Mr. Akselrod and the brutal, unsafe harassment of whistleblower Burke rose to an unprecedented level.<sup>11</sup>

<sup>9</sup> NYCTA fired Mr. Adelman in 2013 to avoid losing another substantial et al. grievance by Burke regarding seniority and bid rights of open yard and switching jobs being worked by rookies in the YX program. This grievance is still pending.

<sup>10</sup> Ms. Nolan was told by Burke on workday prior that the Odums affidavits she submitted, and presumably wrote, were likely suborned. This issue is being investigated by Brooklyn District Attorneys Office, referred by MTA Inspector General.

<sup>11</sup> The specific horrific harassments orchestrated by Defendants Nolan and Akselrod have never occurred in the 100+ prior years of the subways. The presumptive harassment, distraction, interference, hostility of having 5 supervisors

7 false malicious 'complaint' by Ms.

9 Nolan,<sup>12</sup> as was procedure and precedent. He 10
11 would have refused to harass Burke, if 12 directed to do so.

48. On April 14, 2014, a TSS, unknown to this

23 too dangerous. The WCB transcripts are in possession of the 24 Authority and a discovery request. Transit has not complied with 26(f) conference request or initial disclosures.

25           <sup>12</sup> Ms. Nolan's second sight resolved that Burke, a then 13
26 year Train Operator with a perfect safety record, must be 27 operating trains without wearing the correct required glasses.
28 Ms. Nolan had never seen Petitioner operate but knew of corrective lens requirement and was given copy of certificate years prior. This violation of ADA was the pretext, see Reeves

5 Complainants extreme dislike and fear of 6 exactly this behavior due to prior ordeal
7 involving Mr. LoBianco.

8 49. On the second interval on Monday, April, 14, 9 2014, a second unknown TSS entered operating 10 cab and performed slightly greater
11 harassment and unsafe activity.

12 50. On Tuesday, April 15, 2014, Ms. Nolan and 13 Mr. Akselrod, instead of dropping
14 harassment, which at that point failed,
15 doubled up. Burke was found to be in

TSS observes the next train. This was not done, as Ms. Nolan's false complaint was pretext for the criminal harassment.

pretext. The hostile harassment should have stopped but was only getting started.

51. Over the course of the day and on all three intervals, three TSSs serially entered cab, after verifying that Burke was not violating rules, and proceeded to assault, threaten, intimidate and harass the whistleblower until a panic attack occurred at the end of the day.

52. On April 16, 2014, a day off for Burke to attend monthly union meeting, the attached letter was sent to Barry Kluger, MTA Inspector General, by email and regular mail.

This was caused by the concerted activity of
Ms. Nolan and Mr. Akselrod.

55. At first WCB hearing, Mr. Greaves appeared for the Authority, and when the Authority realized Mr. Greaves would not perjure himself, i.e. "play ball", he was dismissed prior to testimony and hearing rescheduled.

56. At later WCB #G1100520 hearing the three 'Tuesday' TSSs, but for some reason not the Monday 2, testified. Their perjury was clearly coached and suborned.<sup>14</sup> The hearing transcripts are in possession of the Authority. unlawful concerted activity by defendants.

57. The NYCTA withheld 2014 vacation and sick pay, in violation of state laws and contract. This was later paid after grievances and importuning by Union.

58. The NYCTA withheld '60%' sick pay. This is a contractual right of sick pay at 60% of normal pay when accumulated sick pay runs out. This was the adverse job action by the Authority that OSHA was investigating as retaliation. The Authority did in fact pay this, 6 months late, at OSHA insistence and OSHA complaint is now withdraw due to compliance.

62. On Thursday, March 26, 2015 Ms. Kathianne Boniello emailed and voicemailed Plaintiff requesting information on an article the Post was writing on whistleblowing and the instant case.

<sup>15</sup> The NY Post and Ms. Nolan, the cause of the injury and the need for reclassification, referred to this as a demotion, which was deliberately false and defamatory. This was not compulsory.

<sup>16</sup> The Authority is required to pay its represented Civil Servants at full pay and benefits for all required training, as per contract. The Authority has chosen to unlawfully and without cause withhold Burke's 2015 pay, sick pay, overtime pay and 60% pay. A grievance was filed and ignored.

66. On Monday April 6, 2015 developed another panic attack.<sup>18</sup> A new Injury On Duty (IOD) form and a new WCB case developed, G1278038. Burke was treated on April 6, 2015 by Dr. Hearn of Central Medical Services of Westrock, and again diagnosed with a panic attack and PTSD, but caused by the new injury inflicted over the preceding week by defendants.

5 This is not a quote and never said, i.e. a
6 false attribution to characterize plaintiff
7 as mentally ill.

8 69. "Train kook's claim" This is clearly
9 defamatory and false.

10 70. "It's the D train, as in devil." Another 11 defamatory and false comment. The only 12 persons named in the article<sup>19</sup> are Brian 13 Burke and Reverend Sharpton, who does this 14 apply to?

15 71. The phrase "satanic terroristic criminality"
16 was qualified in the original complaint with 17 a footnote, this is not an accurate quote.

18
19 _____
20 Petitioner has never been subject of any news article or

72. "Terrorize<sup>20</sup>" and "assault". Not sure where the source of these "quotes" are from, as the Post/NYCTA, in its successful attempt to defame and damage, parse any random unrelated document to construct their "kookdom".

73. Brian Burke was not demoted in 2014 to station-agent trainee. Brian Burke was not demoted, other than voluntarily from Train Dispatcher, and has a perfect disciplinary record. There is no title of Station Agent Trainee, you are either a Station Agent or not. Burke accepted a contractual medical reclassification at the same pay as Train Operator. This took place in 2015, not 2014.

74. As is clear from caption, Petitioner is suing, and works for New York City Transit

<sup>20</sup> The New York Post, a rabid Civil Servant, blue collar and Union hater has previously referred to all TWU Local 100 members who went on strike in 2005, including Petitioner, as terrorists. 1 Authority, Not the MTA or the Metropolitan
2 Transportation Authority. Two legally 3 distinct agencies. The MTA is not and has 4 not been a party. Burke has never worked for 5 the MTA.

7 75. The Post/NYCTA claimed "that the MTA[sic]
8 intended to "endanger every soul on the 9 train and on the track<sup>21</sup>" in April 2014 when 10 its inspectors<sup>22</sup>entered his train<sup>23</sup>to see 11 weather he was wearing corrective lenses."
12
13 Clearly entering the train would and should 14 never be a problem, there were thousands of

17 <sup>21</sup> As always throughout the hit piece no attribution for 18 the "quotes".
19

20 <sup>22</sup> Train Service Supervisors are not "Inspectors" and have 21 received no training as "inspectors" or act as same. There is 22 the civil service titles of Car Inspector and Road Car
23 Inspector, which are important non-supervisory positions in a 24 different department, Car Equipment. They are responsible for 25 repair of trains.

26 <sup>23</sup> Train Service Supervisors regularly ride trains and empty 27 crew cabs, for compliance with rules purposes. This is an 28 accepted and proper practice and does not interfere with safe 29 train operation or constitute harassment. A TSS can judge the 30 safe operation of a train in this manor without ever entering 31 the operating cab, a presumed distraction at best. Mr. Akselrod 32 and Ms. Nolan regularly terminate Civil Servants for allowing 33 people in the cab, including friends, relatives etc. as the 34 presumed safety violation of having another body in the small 35 cabs is deemed intolerable and unjustifiable for any reason.

1 passengers on the train and this is the
2 reason for the subway. Petitioner has no
3 idea, thought or say in how many TSSs, or 4 "Inspectors" for that matter, road his 5 trains on April 14 and 15 2014. This is 6 routine and appropriate. The issue was and 7 is the attacks, assaults and serial
8 harassment by 5 TSSs IN THE OPERATING CAB.

11 The Three TSSs who testified at the WCB
12 hearing acknowledged that the verified
13 correct eyewear was being worn when the 14 train entered in and stopped in the station
15 and prior to entering cab. Thus this was not 16 the purpose for their presence, which was to 17 harass to the point of a panic attack and 18 PTSD.<sup>24</sup>
20

21
22
23
24 Petitioner, in discussions with Union safety personnel, 25 discussed and inquired why the TSSs did something so unsafe and 26 criminal, when they could simply lie and state Petitioner was 27 using a cell phone or wearing no glasses. This is because those 28 accusations as a first offense for a 13 year employee with a clean record would not lead to a termination. Mr. Daley, the last TSS, and to a lesser extent the other 4, maliciously body checked Petitioner three times and clearly was attempting to 1 76. This case<sup>25</sup> is primarily a retaliation case.

2 While Mr. Odums may have been motivated by
3 other animus, even in his case retaliation
4 for supporting Mr. Estes was the driver. I
5 have no evidence Ms. Nolan is inspired by 6 hatred of Irish or Catholics or men over 40.
7 The possibility exists but Occam's Razor
8 would lead us to retaliation as the sole 9 motivator for all the most recent adverse
10 job actions and harassments and hostile
11 workplace.

12 77. Train Operators are allowed to wear
13 "baseball caps". This is a brutal lie about 14 PERB case # U-33283 where Complainant was 15 barred from identifying himself in any way
16 as a Shop Steward on NYCTA property or

17 cause a defensive push away, which would then be characterized 18 as an assault by Mr. Daley and immediate termination and 19 designation as a criminal. There was some testimony at the WCB
20 hearing of an additional supervisor or manager at 205 street
21 station, who conspired to establish and then verify this.

22 <sup>25</sup> And the United States Department of Commerce case, The 23 Census Bureau was never sued.

during lunch. Petitioner never kept "moldy food" in any refrigerator, which would and should be removed or banned, but honey, which never spoils, and lemon juice. False, malicious, defamatory and damaging.

78. "Transit sources", i.e. Ms. Kristen Nolan, knows that PERB did not "rejected his claim that he was assaulted by a boss in 2007." Again false and defamatory. There was no rejection full stop. There was a negotiated stipulation that NYCTA cease and desist prior unlawful activity and recognize Plaintiff as a Shop Steward.

79. "Burke" was never asked to remove required eyewear. Again false and defamatory, a false ADA violating pretext for the unsafe and unlawful harassment.

80. Workers Comp case #G1100520 is before the full WCB panel due to Perjury, Subornation and Obstruction by the NYCTA. As an example

1                   all three testilying TSSs stated that they 2                   were standing three feet away<sup>26</sup>, which was 3                   impossible if they were also watching the 4                   track and signals, as they stated under 5                   oath. Admittedly, if they told the truth
6                   they would be fired.

8 81.           Burke would be making the same, 71K, as a
9                   Station Agent, due to the fact it was not a 10                  demotion. The NYCTA has not paid Burke for 11                  the two weeks at PS248 or 12 sick days, 3
12                  vacation weeks or 9 hours overtime worked 13                  this year. Wage theft and additional 14                  predicate RICO acts.

16 82.           Burke was never "laid off" by the US. Census
17                  Bureau, the census ended. The Census Bureau
18                  was never sued. Petitioner was already 19                  engaged in NYCTA hiring process at the time
20                  and the NYCTA bans dual employment, a firing 21                  offense.

25
26
27
28                  <sup>26</sup> One TSS stated the correct three inch distance until ordered by NYCTS to change to the suborned, coached perjury

1       83.     At PERB hearing of March 27, 2014, U-32637,
2           Burke asked Ms. Nolan of she represented Mr.
3           Odums, simple question. No simple answer.
4           This non answer lead Petitioner to believe
5           the clear perjury by Mr. Odums was suborned.
6           It s longstanding NYCTA practice for the 7           Department of Law to throw the lowest 8           ranking person possible under the bus. In 9           this case it would be Mr. Odums. Clearly,
10           Ms. Nolan pretended to be Mr. Odums attorney 11           so he would sign the false affidavits and 12           she could win her cases. Mr. Odums has no
13           rational legal reason to endorse the perjury 14           and certainly should have been apprised of 15           the conflict of interest he had with Ms.
16           Nolan, who has always only represented the 17           NYCTA and the Department of Law.
18

19       84.     The same goes with the suborned WCB
20           testilying. The three TSSs were not 21           represented by their own counsel and clearly coached and pressured into their perjury. Clearly they were told if they told the truth they would be fired, which is true as any harassment is a termination violation. But since no witnesses or recording is allowed in operating cab we have the perfect, albeit wildly unsafe, location to terrorize at the orders of Ms. Nolan and Mr. Akselrod.

85. Mr. Delize was the Line Superintendent who allegedly ordered the 5 TSSs to harass Burke. He has been forced to retire. There is no evidence that he could grab so many supervisors off of other lines for this campaign of terror. General Superintendent Roderick O'Toole and Director Akselrod could and did. Mr. Delize and even the 5 TSSs are the fall guys and patsies for their superiors.

baseless "Termination of Probation" but claimed privilege as to her role. First, Petitioner was not on "probation" and thus not an employee at will. There was no promotion or demotion, which would require probation, and petitioner neither agreed to nor was notified of this non-probation. NYC Department of Citywide Administrative Services was, in addition, not notified of this mythical, retroactive double secret "probation" as required by NYC Personnel Rules and Regulations and precedent. Given that the imagined "probation" did not exist, no extension of probation could have occurred and more than one year elapsed since the medical reclassification to Station Agent. DCAS was also not informed of any "extension" as required.

7 terminate, primarily for reasons of retaliation for 8 Protected Activity. No pretext has been proffered
9 by NYCTA for any of the criminal acts. Complainant
10 is a Whistleblower; in fact the top, if not only,
11 at the Authority. Ms. Nolan works in the NYCTA

14 more 'disabilities'<sup>30</sup>. Incredibly, Ms. Nolan, and 15 her co-conspirator Mr. Akselrod, used their own

17 regarded as having such an impairment) as their

6       for the Authority decided to unilaterally, 7       dangerously and secretly withdraw what they saw as 8       a 'reasonable accommodation' under ADA. To 9       accomplish this they ordered at least 5 Train

4
5                   Please see attached (exhibit 3) document from the

7                   and Safety Administration (OSHA)) accepting this 8                   petitioners prima facia case for retaliation by not 9                   paying owed 60% sick pay. The OSHA case has been

13                  Petitioners Union (Transport Workers Union,

16                  conduct and is fully supportive of their member.
17
18                  They are especially concerned as this new unwritten
19                  policy by the Department of Law and Labor Relations
20                  instructing supervisors that they have a free hand 21                  to attack and harass whistleblowing, or in fact any

1 and careers of operating Civil Servants, not to 2 mention the public. We know why the Authority
3 retaliated against this whistleblower but why
4 endanger the public? Primarily two reasons (1)
5 There can be no witnesses. Conductors and Train
6 Operators can, and have been terminated for 7 allowing unauthorized personnel in the cab, as 8 anyone in the cab is a potential distraction and 9 presumptively unsafe. (2) No recordings. Operating 10 personnel are affirmatively barred from using any 11 "electronic device" while operating. Thus to record
12 any attack while operating would itself be a 13 termination offense. So we now have the infamous he 14 said/she said dissonance. If the harassing
15 supervisors, acting on management
16 direction/protection, told the truth they would be 17 fired on the spot. So they 'testily'. Let us go to 12 2014 testified at several WBC hearings in 2014.

13 They lied not only about not harassing or 14 assaulting the injured party but on provable
15 deliberate misstatements. For example, all three 16 stated that they were standing 3 feet away while 17 contradictorily stating they were viewing the track 18 and approaching signals. At 3 feet away the view is 19 blocked by the bulkhead, as the suborning attorney

4 that Petitioner, or in fact any Train Operator, was

6 cab. This was brutally contradicted by the TSS that 7 endangered the complainant (and the public) the 8 most by the ferocity of his attack, TSS Daley. So
9 why would the 5 TSS's perform management's bidding
10 and instruction to harass and terrorize a Motorman 11 while he is operating a train? Consideration. The 12 next promotion from TSS is Deputy Superintendent, a

15 TSS's can themselves be harassed by management,

4 NORMAL PROCEDURE

5 A neutral fact finding body may ask, "What is the 6 procedure if a complaint, deliberately incorrect or 7 not, is received by management?" Occasionally, safety
8 complaints are made by passengers or employees.
9
10 Depending on the nature of the complaint, it is either 11 ignored or investigated by one's assigned TSS. Every 12 TSS has approx. 30 hourlies assigned to them and any 13 investigation regarding those thirty is put to them.
14
15 But not in this case. Why? Because Mr. Greaves, 16 Petitioner's assigned TSS, would not perform the 17 necessary terroristic hostile acts. Simple. TSS Greaves
18 was available and on the clock on both April 14 and 15th
19 2014, the dates of the concerted adverse job actions,
20 and was not contacted by management to investigate. TSS

2 complaints not even investigated? When they involve 3 allegations of unsafe train operation by someone who
4 never saw the person operate, such as the malicious
5 complaint by Ms. Nolan. There is a procedure to catch 6 safety violations by operating personnel, complaint or 7 no complaint, malicious or not. They are called 8 "Efficiency Tests" and are regularly performed to catch
9 unsafe operation. Petitioner has a 24 page directive
10 which will be entered as an exhibit if Defendant does 11 not acknowledge their violation of this procedure.
12 Initially, all 5 TSSs comported with the standard 13 operating procedure (SOP) in observing Petitioner in 14 entering and stopping at boarding stations. They 15 acknowledged observing Complainant, as always, in 16 compliance with all safety bulletins and rules. The SOP

APPEAL BOARD
UNEMPLOYMENT DIVISION
NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
P.O. BOX 15126
ALBANY, NY 12212-5126
FAX 518-402-6208
RE: A.L.J. CASE # 016-00819

Dear Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board:

I am the Claimant, Brian Burke, in regard to A.L.J. case no. 016-00819 against employer NYC Transit Authority. I am requesting an APPEAL of the DECISION by ALJ Nicole Beason of February 18, 2016. The reasons are as follows;

1. At the sworn Hearing of February 8, 2016 at 250 Schermerhorn St. the Transit Authority witness NYCTA Human Resources Analyst Monique Baptist testified and acknowledged under oath that approximately 95 hours of straight and overtime pay were withheld without legal reason, a willful violation of the Fair Labor Standard Act, etc.. In addition Claimant testified that 15 days X 8 hours earned vacation pay were identically without legal cause unpaid. In addition 12 sick days X 8 hours and 60 sick days @ 60% pay where identically without cause criminally withheld. This was not disputed by Authority witness, see transcript. At the contractual wage rate of $38.16 an hour for Train Operator, this ongoing felony involves wage fraud and Retaliation for over 21K in stolen wages. If this not for this ongoing criminal act, a lawful unemployment claim would have been established for work done in 2015. This calculation was in fact made in 2015 by Supervisor Heather Storer of NYS Department of Labor heather.storer@labor.ny.gov .
2. The question is thus a legal question of First Impression for the Board. The Decision quoted no case law and admittedly Claimant could equally find none. The Transit Authority does not oppose the claim or dispute the wage theft. Should New York State count acknowledged wage theft effectively as part and parcel of "paid remuneration" or alternatively legalize this moral hazard of Wage Theft? Should an employer acting in Bad Faith without lawful pretext be allowed to steal earned wages from a Whistle-blower, or any other employee, in order to also deny an unemployment claim after an unlawful constructive termination? This is the issue for the Board. If the Board allows no 'bad faith' exception to the ALJ's First Impression injudicious interpretation of 'paid remuneration' as not including acknowledged wage theft, then employers throughout the state will do exactly as Transit has done. This will exponentially increase the number of cases handled by the NYS DOL. In regard to some case law Rutzen v. Monroe County, 104 Misc. 2d 1000 - NY: Supreme Court, Monroe 1980 It is clear that plaintiff received the benefits only by meeting certain eligibility requirements which include having worked a certain number of weeks at a certain minimum salary during the period preceding the claim for unemployment insurance (see Labor Law, § 527). Justice, and the intent of the legislature, requires that employers not benefit from Unclean Hands or Bad Faith. This Moral Hazard of benefiting the wrongdoer and punishing the victim is legally and factually wrong on its face and must be overturned as Arbitrary and Capricious. As seen above, the Courts interpret Statute 527 as the time worked.

8. The issue is should 'earned remuneration' effectively = 'paid remuneration' for purposes of NYSLI, when Employer has willfully and admittedly, without lawful cause or pretext, not conveyed, withheld or stole said earnings, wages and/or remuneration that would otherwise establish a claim. This Decision of course punishes the victims of an unlawful constructive termination, wage theft or wage fraud, especially a government employee or whistle-blower, by injudiciously blocking an otherwise legitimate unemployment claim and encourages and legalizes said conduct. IN THE MATTER OF NIEBLAS, 21 AD 3d 1193 - NY: Appellate Div., 3rd Dept. 2005. "Inasmuch as the record establishes that claimant did not have sufficient earnings in his base period or an alternative base period to qualify to file a valid original claim for benefits, substantial evidence supports the Board's decision (see Labor Law §§ 520, 527; Matter of Badrajan [Commissioner of Labor], 275 AD2d 830 [2000]). And Matter of Bellamy, 24 AD 8d 891 - NY: Appellate Div., 3rd Dept. 2006" In any event, it is undisputed that claimant did not have sufficient earnings in his base period, from April 1, 2002 to March 31, 2003, to qualify to file a valid original claim (see Labor Law § 527; Matter of Rodriguez [New York City Dept. of Educ. Commissioner of Labor], 24 AD3d 934 [2005]; Matter of Nieblas [Commissioner of Labor], 21 AD3d 1193, 1194 [2005]). And MATTER OF SCHULZ, 300 AD 2d 729 - NY: Appellate Div., 3rd Dept. 2002 "Inasmuch as the record establishes that claimant's base period earnings are not 1½ times his highest calendar quarter of $10,375.51 (see Labor Law § 527 [1] [d])," And IN THE MATTER OF PERRY, 2011 NY Slip Op 9557 - NY: Appellate Div., 3rd Dept. 2011 "Labor Law § 527 (1) (d) provides for the exclusion of wages earned from 'employers from whom the claimant lost employment under conditions which would be disqualifying pursuant to [section 593 (3)].'" However, Labor Law § 593 (3) specifically provides that such a disqualifying condition is eliminated after the claimant 'has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to five times his or her weekly benefit rate.' It is undisputed that claimant earned the requisite remuneration in subsequent employment." Clearly "earnings" is the operative word for The Third Department, not this injudicious anti-labor interpretation of remuneration.
4. Misconduct Sec. 598. Disqualification for benefits "Voluntary separation; separation for a compelling family reason. (a) No days of total unemployment shall be deemed to occur after a claimant's voluntary separation without good cause from employment until he or she has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or her weekly benefit rate." We see the term "earned remuneration", yet in this case the victim of misconduct has been disqualified of benefits. See also Sec. 598 3. Misconduct. No days of total unemployment shall be deemed to occur after a claimant lost employment through misconduct in connection with his or her employment until he or she has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or her weekly benefit rate." Again "earned remuneration".
5. Estoppel of Laches and Unclean Hands. In addition to the agreed to theft of wages and benefits (remuneration), the Authority is committing Employer Unemployment Fraud, Sec. 565. Governmental entities. In addition this admitted and wilfull violation of Sec. 575. Maintenance, audit, and report of remuneration and employment records, should be punished under Sec. 575-a. Penalties relating to wage information and not rewarded by DOL or covered-up. By not paying owed earned wages the Unemployment Insurance fund is identically being shortchanged willfully the same as if the payments were actually paid 'under the table' or cash. Claimant has attempted to report this crime, which should be investigated by the Department of Labor and not covered-up. Claimant was also informed that the NYS DOL Wages and Hour Division that this crime will not be investigated due to an interpretation of state law wherein this Employer is not an Employer, (see Catch 22, Joseph Heller). See Sec. 688. Wilful failure to pay contributions "Any person who wilfully refuses or fails to pay a contribution to the fund shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." and Sec. 682. False statements or representations. "(b) in order to reduce the amount of contributions to the fund. The actual enforcement of this requirement does not seem to concern the DOL, which does concern this Whistle-Blower.

8. Claimant respectfully Requests this Appeal Board Overturn and Reverse ALJ Decision in order not to unintentionally legalize and encourage wage theft and fraud against innocent employees and instead clarify a rational judicious correct interpretation of relevant statute of First Impression wherein the term "paid remuneration" is legally identical to "earned remuneration" in regard to New York Labor Law in cases of admitted wage theft, as clearly intended and implied and not in a manor to reward prospective fraud seafors and racketeers. Claimant Requests further Hearing under Sec. 621

Re: Burke v. New York City Transit Authority
EEOC No.: 520-2015-00756

Dear Mr. Burke:

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (hereinafter referred to as the "Commission") has reviewed the above-referenced charge according to our charge prioritization procedures. These procedures, which are based on a reallocation of the Commission's staff resources, apply to all open charges in our inventory and call for us to focus our limited resources on those cases that are most likely to result in findings of violations of the laws we enforce.

In accordance with these procedures, we have examined your charge based upon the information and evidence you submitted. You allege you were discriminated against because of your race, sex, national origin, age, disability, religion and participation in a protected activity.

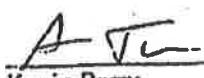

Per our conversation of December 10, 2014, the Commission has reviewed the information you submitted and has determined that there is not enough information to conclude that further investigation would likely result in finding a violation of federal law.

This does not certify that Respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issue that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The Commission's processing of this charge has been concluded. Included with this letter is your Notice of Dismissal and Right to Sue. Following this dismissal, you may only pursue this matter by filing suit against the Respondent named in the charge within 90 days of receipt of suit notice. Otherwise, your right to sue will be lost.

Please contact Austin Turner at (212) 336-3750 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

for
Kevin Berry
District Director

INFORMATION RELATED TO FILING SUIT UNDER THE LAWS ENFORCED BY THE EEOC

(This information relates to filing suit in Federal or State court under Federal law. If you also plan to sue claiming violations of State law, please be aware that time limits and other provisions of State law may be shorter or more limited than those described below.)

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA):

In order to pursue this matter further, you must file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) named in the charge within 90 days of the date you receive this Notice. Therefore, you should keep a record of this date. Once this 90-day period is over, your right to sue based on the charge referred to in this Notice will be lost. If you intend to consult an attorney, you should do so promptly. Give your attorney a copy of this Notice, and its envelope, and tell him or her the date you received it. Furthermore, in order to avoid any question that you did not act in a timely manner, it is prudent that your suit be filed within 90 days of the date this Notice was mailed to you (as indicated where the Notice is signed) or the date of the postmark, if later.

Your lawsuit may be filed in U.S. District Court or a State court of competent jurisdiction. (Usually, the appropriate State court is the general civil trial court.) Whether you file in Federal or State court is a matter for you to decide after talking to your attorney. Filing this Notice is not enough. You must file a "complaint" that contains a short statement of the facts of your case which shows that you are entitled to relief. Your suit may include any matter alleged in the charge or, to the extent permitted by court decisions, matters like or related to the matters alleged in the charge. Generally, suits are brought in the State where the alleged unlawful practice occurred, but in some cases can be brought where relevant employment records are kept, where the employment would have been, or where the respondent has its main office. If you have simple questions, you usually can get answers from the office of the clerk of the court where you are bringing suit, but do not expect that office to write your complaint or make legal strategy decisions for you.

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Equal Pay Act (EPA):

EPA suits must be filed in court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment back pay due for violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible. For example, if you were underpaid under the EPA for work performed from 7/1/08 to 12/1/08, you should file suit before 7/1/10 – not 12/1/10 – in order to recover unpaid wages due for July 2008. This time limit for filing an EPA suit is separate from the 90-day filing period under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA referred to above. Therefore, if you also plan to sue under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA, in addition to suing on the EPA claim, suit must be filed within 90 days of this Notice and within the 2- or 3-year EPA back pay recovery period.

ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION -- Title VII, the ADA or GINA:

If you cannot afford or have been unable to obtain a lawyer to represent you, the U.S. District Court having jurisdiction in your case may, in limited circumstances, assist you in obtaining a lawyer. Requests for such assistance must be made to the U.S. District Court in the form and manner it requires (you should be prepared to explain in detail your efforts to retain an attorney). Requests should be made well before the end of the 90-day period mentioned above, because such requests do not relieve you of the requirement to bring suit within 90 days.

ATTORNEY REFERRAL AND EEOC ASSISTANCE -- All Statutes:

You may contact the EEOC representative shown on your Notice if you need help in finding a lawyer or if you have any questions about your legal rights, including advice on which U.S. District Court can hear your case. If you need to inspect or obtain a copy of information in EEOC's file on the charge, please request it promptly in writing and provide your charge number (as shown on your Notice). While EEOC destroys charge files after a certain time, all charge files are kept for at least 6 months after our last action on the case. Therefore, if you file suit and want to review the charge file, please make your review request within 6 months of this Notice. (Before filing suit, any request should be made within the next 90 days.)

IF YOU FILE SUIT, PLEASE SEND A COPY OF YOUR COURT COMPLAINT TO THIS OFFICE.

*Describe alleged fraudulent activity:

Employer/Carrier knowingly and intentionally made a false and material statement to the Workers Compensation Board in order to successfully deny complainant his due benefits under law. Speaking by phone yesterday with WCB supervisor Sharon Thomas I was told that the NYCTA sent documents to the WCB purporting that the case G1278038 was a duplicate file to G1100520 (which is pending before the Board). The NYCTA knew this material fact was false and Ms. Thomas, assuming that carrier was acting in good faith, made an administrative decision to combine these two cases and cancel G1278038. The NYCTA was not acting in good faith but attempting to win a controverted case through subterfuge, fraud and perjury. The injury itself was wilfully caused by NYCTA Department of Law employees and others.

Employer Fraud Referral Form

To report an employer that you suspect is violating the workers' compensation coverage requirements, please complete this form. This information is confidential.

*Required Fields

*Reason For Referral

- No workers' compensation coverage
- Employer is underreporting or concealing payroll
- Employer is misclassifying employees
- Other

Employer

*Name of Employer: New York City Transit Authority

Street Address: 130 Livingston Street

Address Line 2: _____

*City: Brooklyn

State: NY

Zip Code: 11201

Country: USA

Type of business: Public Transportation

Number of workers: 50000

Do they do business under any other name? MTA, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, NYCTA, Department of Subways

Fraud

Please be as specific as possible with information provided.

Some examples of alleged violations include:

- 1) Employer has 5 workers framing a house and the employer does not have workers' compensation.
- 2) Employer reports paying his/her workers $10.00 an hour to the insurance company or the employee leasing company, but also pays another $5.00 an hour in cash "off the books".
- 3) Employer is paying all or some individuals in cash "off the books".
- 4) Employer is an asbestos removal company but has reported all employees as clerical employees for workers' compensation premium classification purposes

Describe alleged fraudulent activity:

The employer fraud occurred in case# G1100520 in a WCB hearing before Judge Patricia Harris on October 18, 2014 when the carrier/employer suborned the perjury of three supervisors, i.e. knowingly and intentionally made false material statements in order to successfully deny WC benefits to claimant. The relevant document in case is 235980365. While all statements by these three men denying their verbal and physical harassment of claimant while he was operating trains are perjury, this cannot be independently verified. This is the reason the carrier/employer chose to commit said acts while simultaneously endangering the public. Train Operators are affirmatively barred from having a person of their chose ride in the operating cab based on a presumption of a possibly fatal distraction. Train Operators are barred from using any electronic devise, including recording devices, while operating trains, for the same reason. Thus a moving train is the only place for the employer to successfully attack a whistle-blower, i.e. claimant, without witness or electronic corroboration. What can be independently verified is the subornation of perjury regarding where the supervisors stood during the attacks. One said at first he was standing 3 inches away during his attack, which was correct. After admonishment by carrier, he changed it to the coached, suborned perjury of three feet. Another stated he was standing one foot, then two then three feet away. The suborned "three feet" perjury met with the carriers approval. The other supervisor also stated he was three feet away. This is demonstrably and deliberately false. To stand three feet away from a seated Train Operator in a R68 transverse cab the supervisors would be blocked from viewing the track or signals which is their ostensible job and what they testified to be doing. QED perjury that was suborned. In addition, one supervisor stated that claimant could bar or remove them from the cab and another stated that claimant could not. Thus at least one was committing perjury on that point as well. Unfortunately, ALJ P. Harris accepted this suborned perjury as fact and ruled against claimant. Thus this subornation was certainly material and denied claimant his rightful benefits.

Memorandum

New York City Transit

Date: April 21, 2014

To: Wanda Manley, Director, Employee Safety and Rules Compliance, DOS

From: Christopher Basile, "C/H" Line Superintendent

Re: Train Operator Brian Burke # 006158 Request for Re-Assessment of IOD

I am requesting the following employee's claim of injury to be re-assessed. The employee and pertinent facts are listed below:

Train Operator Brian Burke # 006158

On Thursday, April 17, 2014, T/O Brian Burke # 006158 reported for his assignment (D 317) at the Stillwell Avenue Crew Reporting Center and stated to Assistant Train Dispatcher Gordon Anderson # 014982 that he was unable to operate his train due to "Stress", and he requested to file an Injury on Duty Form. T/O Burke further asked that he be sent for drug testing and additionally requested to file a Safety Rule Dispute Resolution Form. Superintendent Icart instructed Train Service Supervisor R. Greaves # 007833 to escort T/O Burke to Medical Assessment Center # 1 to complete ability to perform testing. It should be noted that T.W.U. Representative Sullivan was notified of this incident and conferred via phone with T/O Burke for 15 minutes prior to management's interview with him. During the interview conducted by Superintendent John Icart, and Superintendent Harry Hernandez, at the 'A' line Superintendents Office, T/O Burke reported that he requested to file an IOD package because he felt "Stress" due to what he described as "Escalating Harassment" on the part of New York City Transit and as a result, he would not be able to work the following day on Friday April 18. T/O Burke additionally requested to file a Safety Rule Dispute Resolution Form stating the rule or standard being violated was "Escalating Harassment" orchestrated by Department of Law Employees. It should be noted at the conclusion of this interview T/O Burke was directed by Superintendent Icart to report to the Office of Labor Relations at 8 AM on Friday, April 18. On this date line management received correspondence from Leonard Akselrod, Director of Labor Relations reporting that T/O Burke was being carried Code # 22 effective 4/18/2014 and would be sent to the Safety Unit. Special instructions further issued stated that T/O Burke is restricted to platform duty pending investigation and toxicology results. T/O Burke then reported to the Safety Unit and was interviewed by Wanda Manley. Ms. Manley distributed correspondence following her interview stating that on Tuesday, April 16, 2014, T/O Brian Burke experienced an incident at 205 Street while operating the 1951 D STL/205 at 2130 hours. This incident was not described in this distribution letter and only states that T/O Burke should be carried code # 22 effective Friday, April 18, 2014, until further notice.

This reassessment request is based on the following:

- According to "Injury On Duty Guidelines" currently posted on TENS OSS page, an IOD is described as any injury or illness related to work while in /on agency property and while on duty; Psychological stress or anxiety claims related to work directions, evaluations, or discipline procedures are not considered an IOD

Page 2 of 2

- T/O Burke reported his IOD was the result of "Stress" and has filed a Safety Rule Dispute Resolution Form. Based on T/O Burke's statements, line management deems that no safety rule was violated and offers no response.

The following supervisors / managers will be available to testify at a compensation hearing, should it be necessary:

- Superintendent John Icart RDO S/M (212) 712-3704/3705
- Superintendent Darpan Telwala RDO F/S (212) 712-3704 / 3705
- ATD Gordon Anderson (347) 643-5464 / 5465
- TSS Robert Greaves (718) 430-8293

Dear Train Operator (Rev. Vehicles) Brian Burke:

Our records indicate that you have been absent and/or unable to perform the duties of your position due to a non-service connected illness/injury since 4/18/2014. Therefore, pursuant to §73 Civil Service Law, MTA-New York City Transit intends to terminate your employment effective 4/18/2015. You should be aware that as an employee you may be eligible for disability or service retirement benefits which may be affected by this termination.

You may be eligible for reclassification to another title. If you elect this option, you will be given a leave of absence for up to six months in order to complete a scheduled reclassification medical examination. If you do not elect this option, your employment will be considered terminated effective 4/18/2015. Please be advised that during this Reclassification Leave, you will not be eligible for continuation of any benefits. Please note that Cleaner titles are not eligible for reclassification.

If terminated from service, any right to reinstatement is determined by §73 of the NYS Civil Service Law and/or the relevant Policy/Instruction. Under those provisions, you may apply for a medical examination to permit consideration for reinstatement to your job, not later than one year after the date of your termination due to disability, to the extent that you are able to perform the essential duties of your position with or without a reasonable accommodation.

If certified to be physically and mentally fit to perform the duties of your former position, with or without a reasonable accommodation, you will be reinstated to your former position, if vacant, or to a vacancy in a similar position or a position in a lower grade in the same occupational field, or to a vacant position for which you were eligible for transfer. If no appropriate vacancy exists to which reinstatement may be made, or if the workload does not warrant the filling of such vacancy, your name will be placed on a preferred list for your former position, and you shall be eligible for reinstatement from such preferred list for a period of four years. In the event that you are reinstated to a position in a grade lower than that of your former position, your name will be placed on the preferred eligible list for your former position or any similar position.

Please sign this form, indicating your decision and return it forthwith to Subways Sick Unit, 130 Livingston Street, 6th FL, Brooklyn, NY 11201 by 1/30/2015. Failure to return this form within the

For retirement procedures and application forms, please contact your union representative or the New York City Employees Retirement System, 340 Jay St, Brooklyn, New York 11201 or call (347) 643-3000.

'Satanic MTA out to kill'

Train kook's claim

By KATHIANNE BONIELLO

It's the D train, as in devil. A train operator of 14 years has filed a lawsuit against the MTA alleging it engaged in "satanic terroristic criminality" by sending bosses to "terrorize" and "assault" him.

Brian Burke, 53, who was demoted last year to station-agent trainee, claims in the suit that the MTA intended to "endanger every soul on the train and on the track" in April 2014 when its inspectors entered his train to see whether he was wearing corrective lenses.

The Manhattan man, who filed the suit in Brooklyn federal court last week without a lawyer, has railed against his bosses before.

He has filed suits and claims against the MTA and the Census Bureau, arguing they discriminated against him because he is white, Irish, Catholic and "photophobic," or sensitive to light.

In the latest suit, he says the MTA is trying to kill him, in part, because he griped when ordered not to wear baseball caps and to clean moldy food from a break-room refrigerator.

"I believe I may be in mortal danger," Burke writes, likening himself to the Rev. Al Sharpton, who claimed to have been an FBI informant against the mob.

"Rev. Sharpton was accused of 'ratting out the mob' and I maybe [sic] justly accused of 'ratting out the MTA.' I believe the MTA may be more dangerous. There is [sic] 600 volts, high structure, 600-ton trains and an infinite way to be murdered or 'suicided.'"

Transit sources say his previous wacky claims have been shot down by courts or the Public Employee Relations Board. The board rejected his claim that he was assaulted by a boss in 2007.

Burke had refused to remove his tinted glasses at a 2014 PERB hearing, prompting supervisors to check on him last April, a source said.

He was making $71,000 a year as an operator, but when he failed in his bid to get worker's comp for the April "assault," the MTA gave him a choice — quit or get off the gravy train, a source said.

Burke is now training to be a station agent, a job with an annual salary of $54,000.

He has called the MTA "The Invisible Empire" and compared it to the KKK.

He tried suing the Census after it laid him off in 2000, but a court tossed the case.

Burke's latest suit seeks back pay and unspecified damages.

BOARD DECISION AND ORDER

This matter comes to us on exceptions filed by Brian Burke to a decision of an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) dismissing his improper practice charge against his employer, New York City Transit Authority (NYCTA).<sup>1</sup> Based on the allegations in the amended charge, discussions at a pre-hearing conference, and an offer of proof that Burke filed in support of his allegations, the ALJ held that Burke's allegations, if proved, would not establish a prima facie violation of §§ 209-a.1 (a) and (c) of the Public Employees' Fair Employment Act (Act).

Burke alleges in his exceptions that the ALJ mischaracterized the facts in his offer of proof and erroneously concluded that those facts failed to reveal a prima facie violation of the Act. NYCTA filed a response in support of the ALJ's description of the facts and her conclusion of law. Burke filed a reply to NYCTA's response, without seeking authorization to do so under § 213.3 of our Rules of Procedure (Rules).<sup>2</sup>

Because Burke did not seek permission to file a reply, and because NYCTA's response to Burke's exceptions did not raise material issues for the first time as to warrant the filing of a reply, we do not address or consider the allegations in his reply.<sup>3</sup> For the reasons given below, we affirm the ALJ's decision.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND RELEVANT FACTS

Burke's amended improper practice charge alleges that NYCTA violated §§209-a.1 (a) and (c)<sup>4</sup> of the Act by comments made in a newspaper article and by withholding his wages, sick leave, vacation time, and overtime. NYCTA filed an answer denying that it violated the Act and asserting a number of defenses. At a pre-hearing conference, after Burke's statement of his case, NYCTA moved to dismiss the charge for its failure to present a prima facie claim. Following the conference, Burke filed an

<sup>2</sup> "No pleading other than exceptions, cross-exceptions or a response thereto will be accepted or considered by the board unless it is requested by the board or filed with the board's authorization. Such additional pleadings will not be requested or authorized by the board unless the preceding pleading properly raises issues which are material to the disposition of the matter for the first time. If any additional pleading is requested or authorized by the board, the board shall notify the parties regarding the conditions under which that pleading will be permitted."

<sup>3</sup> Id.

<sup>4</sup> A claim under §209-a.1(d) of the Act was not processed based on lack of standing. Because Burke did not except to that portion of the ALJ's decision, any objection to that ruling has been waived and is not properly before us. City University of New York, 48 PERB ¶ 3021, 3071 (2015) (citing Rules § 213.2 (b) (4)); Village of Endicott, 47 PERB ¶ 3017, 3052, n. 5 (2014)); City of Schenectady, 46 PERB ¶ 3025, 3056, at n. 8 (2013), confd sub nom Matter of City of Schenectady v NYS Pub Empl Relations Bd, 47 PERB ¶ 7004 (Sup Ct Albany Co 2014), affd, 136 AD3d 1086 (3d Dept 2016); Town of Orangetown, 40 PERB ¶3008 (2007), confd sub nom Matter of Town of Orangetown v NYS Pub Empl Relations Bd, 40 PERB ¶ 7008 (Sup Ct Albany Co 2007); Town of Wallkill, 42 PERB ¶ 3006 (2009). Likewise, Burke has not excepted to the ALJ's denial of his motion to dismiss the NYCTA's answer as untimely, on the ground that the late filing was a result of attorney error and did not prejudice Burke. Any such exception has been waived and is not properly before us. Id.

offer of proof in support of his charge and a brief in opposition to NYCTA's motion.

NYCTA filed a brief in support of its motion.

Burke is a 14-year employee of NYCTA, working most of that time as a train operator. He is also a Transit Workers Union, Local 100 (TWU) shop steward. In April 2014 he was demoted to station-agent trainee as the result of alleged safety violations.<sup>5</sup>

Burke had filed improper practice charges against NYCTA in 2007 and in February 2014. On March 20, 2015, he also filed a federal lawsuit against NYCTA seeking back pay and unspecified damages.

In his current improper practice charge, Burke claims retaliation by NYCTA for his prior improper practice proceedings.<sup>6</sup> He asserts that the retaliation came in the form of a derogatory article in the New York Post and NYCTA's withholding of pay and benefits "in an attempt to drive this whistleblower into poverty." He also claims that "unknown supervision and management" referred to him at a learning center as a "Train Kook."

The March 29, 2015 Post article, attached to Burke's charge, is headlined: "Satanic MTA out to kill" Train kook's claim." It begins, "It's the D train, as in devil." The article reports that Burke filed a lawsuit in federal court against NYCTA that accuses NYCTA of engaging in "satanic terroristic criminality" by sending bosses to "terrorize" and "assault" him. According to the article, Burke alleged in his lawsuit that NYCTA has <sup>5</sup> NYCTA inspectors allegedly entered his train to check if he was wearing corrective lenses. The visit was reportedly prompted by Burke's refusal to remove tinted glasses at a 2014 PERB hearing.

<sup>6</sup> He also claims "direct violation of NYCTA Department of Law policy and NYCTA Rules," both of which are beyond our jurisdiction.

intended to "endanger every soul on the train and on the track" when, in April 2014, its inspector "entered his train to see whether he was wearing corrective lenses." The article further reports that Burke explained that the electricity on the tracks and the weight of trains create an "infinite way to be murdered or suicided" [sic]. It quotes Burke's lawsuit as stating that he believes he may be in "mortal danger" and that his employer "may be more dangerous" than "the mob." The article reports: "Transit sources say his previous wacky claims have been shot down by courts or the Public Employee [sic] Relations Board." Finally, the article reports that Burke has called NYCTA "the Invisible Empire" and likened it to the "KKK."

At no point does the article identify any of its sources. However, Burke told the ALJ at the pre-hearing conference that he was contacted by a reporter before the article was published and spoke to that person for 27 minutes. The ALJ surmised that the Post obtained its material from reviewing Burke's federal complaint. There is no basis to conclude that NYCTA had anything to do with the publication of the article.

According to Burke, the article caused him to suffer a "panic attack." He alleges that as a result of his panic attack, he has been out of work on Worker's Compensation since the publication of the article. Burke claims that NYCTA is challenging his entitlement to Workers Compensation benefits. He further claims that the author of the article violated his civil rights and retaliated against him for his prior PERB cases "and other whistleblowing activity."<sup>7</sup> Burke also contends that NYCTA "published" the piece in the Post and distributed it online.

<sup>7</sup> This was Burke's statement at the PERB conference when he was asked to explain the basis for his charge.

In specifying who within NYCTA he believed was responsible for the article, he pointed to attorney Kristen Nolan, who handled the 2007 PERB case, which was settled, and is the attorney assigned to the present charge. In an October 19, 2015 letter to the ALJ, Burke opined:

The charges against the Respondent are clear, that in retaliation for protected activity by the Charging Party, one or more attorneys at the NYCTA Department of Law, presumably Ms. Nolan, gave false information to the New York Post characterizing Respondent as a "Train kook" etc.<sup>8</sup>

In his charge, however, Burke states outright that Nolan "wrote and/or had published a false malicious slanderous defamatory hit piece." He also asserts that it was "disseminated at the workplace, online at MTA Today Facebook and throughout the Transit system" without identifying by whom. He said that his supervisor brought a copy of the article to him and that "apparently someone from the supervisor's office posted it." An amendment to the charge, in response to a deficiency notice, however, asserts that Nolan was responsible for the article's distribution online and at NYCTA's work sites. No basis for that conclusion is provided.

Burke's theory of the case is further confused by reference in his October 19, 2015 letter to the ALJ, stating:

The New York Post, in their motion to dismiss, acknowledged that it was a NYCTA attorney who gave the what they acknowledge now is false information [sic].<sup>9</sup>

However, the only motion to dismiss that is pending before PERB is that filed by NYCTA; the New York Post is not a party to the instant proceeding. This was pointed out to Burke in a letter from the ALJ dated October 26, 2015, to which he did not respond. No papers from another legal action involving the newspaper have been presented.

As for Burke's claim of NYCTA's retaliatory withholding of his wages and benefits, no information was presented to the ALJ other than a statement of the amounts that were allegedly withheld and his conclusory assertion that the withholding was "in retaliation and a successful attempt to drive this whistle-blower into poverty."<sup>10</sup> It appears from the papers that the wages and benefits were stopped pending the outcome of the Worker's Compensation claim that NYCTA appears to be contesting.

DISCUSSION

The ALJ accurately recounted Burke's allegations and the basis for his claim that NYCTA violated §§ 209-a.1 (a) and (c). Moreover, although there is no written documentation of the discussion at the pre-hearing conference on which the ALJ relied, Burke's exceptions are not inconsistent with the ALJ's recitation of those discussions.

In UFT (Jenkins),<sup>11</sup> the Board reaffirmed the settled test applicable to a charge such as this.

It is well-established that a charging party in an improper practice charge alleging unlawfully motivated interference or discrimination in violation of §§ 209-a.1(a) and (c) of the Act has the burden of proof to demonstrate by a preponderance of evidence that: a) the affected individual engaged in protected activity under the Act; b) such activity was known

---

<sup>10</sup> Burke's letter to the ALJ dated October 19, 2015. In his brief in opposition to the motion, Burke also cites, at p. 2, the "Wage Theft Prevention Act Section 195 of the NYS Labor Law." The ALJ correctly observed that our jurisdiction extends only to the Act, and not to any statute other than the Act.

<sup>11</sup> 41 PERB ¶ 3007 (2008), confirmed sub nom. Jenkins v. New York State Pub Empl Relations Bd, 41 PERB ¶ 7007 (Sup Ct NY County 2008).

to the person or persons taking the employment action; and
c) the employment action would not have been taken "but for" the protected activity.<sup>12</sup>

There, the Board emphasized that proof of a prima facie case of improperly motivated action can be established with direct or circumstantial evidence, observing:

At minimum, the circumstantial evidence necessary to prove a prima facie case must be sufficient to give rise to an inference that unlawfully motivated interference or discrimination was a factor in the employer's conduct. This relatively low initial evidentiary threshold for establishing a prima facie case in circumstantial evidence cases is necessitated by the principles underlying §§ 209-a.1(a) and (c) of the Act along with the lack of discovery and the pleading requirements under our Rules of Procedure (Rules). Although the timing and the context of events alone in a circumstantial evidence case may not be sufficient to meet a charging party's ultimate burden of proof, the timing and context of an employer's conduct may be sufficient to establish an inference of improper motivation, thereby shifting the burden of persuasion to the respondent to come forward with evidence demonstrating a non-discriminatory basis for the alleged conduct.<sup>13</sup>

Here, we find that the facts alleged in Burke's improper practice charge, as amended, and clarified at the pre-hearing conference, and augmented by his offer of proof, do not make out a circumstantial prima facie case of a violation of §§ 209-a.1 (a) or (c) of the Act. At its heart, the charge and offer of proof complain of the article published in the New York Post. Burke's offer of proof and his allegations are devoid of any basis upon which a reasonable inference can be drawn that NYCTA was responsible for that publication. Moreover, there is nothing in any of Burke's pleadings that tends to establish that NYCTA retaliated against Burke by withholding wages and benefits because he filed his two prior improper practice charges. Based on the pleadings before us, we agree with the ALJ that the simple allegation that the withholding of Burke's wages and benefits followed the filing of his prior charges is an insufficient basis to require NYCTA to come forward with a defense to the charge.<sup>14</sup>

Accordingly, we affirm the decision of the ALJ and dismiss Burke's improper practice charge.

DECISION

BRIAN BURKE (“Appellant”) appealed from a May 5, 2016 determination by the Transit Authority (“TA”) terminating him from his position as a probationary Station Agent.

Appellant filed an appeal with the NYC Civil Service Commission (“Commission”) on October 21, 2016, in which he represented that he accepted a reclassification from Train Operator to Station Agent with the understanding that there would be no probationary period. Appellant also argued that, according to NYC Personnel Rules and Regulations (“PRR”) Sec. 5.2, he should have been restored to his former civil service title of Train Operator if he did not pass his probationary period as a Station Agent.

The Commission issued an interim order to the TA on October 21, 2016, directing the agency to clarify Appellant’s employment status, including whether he was probationary in his civil service title, when he was terminated on May 5, 2016. The Commission also directed TA to submit legal argument as to whether the Commission has jurisdiction under Civil Service Law (“CSL”) Sec. 76 to hear Appellant’s appeal.

TA submitted its response on December 1, 2016, affirming that Appellant was probationary in the title of Station Agent at the time of his termination. The TA stated that although Appellant was hired as a Train Operator in February 2001, he went on disability leave in April 2014 and did not return to work until March 2015, at which time he asked to be reclassified to Station Agent. The TA granted his request and Appellant began his mandatory one-year probationary period as a Station Agent on March 23, 2015. On April 6, 2015, nine days later, Appellant left work claiming an “injury on duty” and never returned. Thirteen months later, the TA terminated Appellant’s employment for unsatisfactory attendance during his probation.

On December 5, 2016, Appellant responded to the TA’s submission, arguing that he agreed to be reclassified on the understanding that he would be permanent in the title of Station Agent, but admitted that he has “no documents, at this time, which affirmatively show” that he was a permanent employee in that title. However, Appellant also asserted that he had agreed to be placed on probation in the new title but had not been informed that any absences would extend that probationary period.

On December 6, 2016, the Commission requested either party to submit the written document that informed Appellant that he was being reclassified as a Station Agent. The TA submitted a two-page document titled “Reclassification Consideration Request due to Disability.” The first page, dated March 11, 2015, informed Appellant that he was being offered a position as a Station Agent. The second page, dated March 13, 2015, informed Appellant that in order to be reclassified he “will be required to resign from [his] present title [and that he] will be required to serve a probationary period of one year in the new title, subject to automatic extension for absences.” (Emphasis added.) Appellant signed and dated both pages. The second

The Commission finds that the record supports the conclusion that Appellant agreed to be reclassified knowing that he would be returned to probationary status in the new position and that any absences would extend the probationary period. The Commission therefore finds that Appellant was a probationary employee when he was terminated.

Probationary employees have no rights under CSL Sec. 75 and, consequently, no right to appeal a disciplinary action to the Commission. It is well-settled that "probationary employees had no property rights in their positions and could be discharged without a hearing and without a stated specific reason." Dozier v. New York City, 130 A.D.2d 128, 139. Further, CSL Sec. 76 "solely authorizes the Commission to hear appeals from hearings in connection with disciplinary proceedings under section 75." Johnson v. Triborough Bridge & Tunnel Auth., 97 N.Y.2d 627, 629 (2001) (citing Matter of Montella v Bratton, 93 NY2d 424, 426).

Therefore, based upon the law and facts as stated above, the Commission lacks jurisdiction to consider this appeal and it is hereby dismissed, and the TA's termination of Appellant's employment during his probationary period remains unchanged.

<sup>1</sup> Although the witness's name is unreadable, the Commission accepts that the document was witnessed. On December 9, 2016, the TA submitted a color copy of the document along with an affidavit from its Chief Officer, Human Resources, attesting that the document was signed and witnessed on March 13, 2015, and maintained as a business record. Appellant responded the same day reiterating that he did not sign the March 13, 2015 document.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

Sec. 120. Discrimination against employees who bring proceedings. It shall be unlawful for any employer or his or her duly authorized agent to discharge or in any other manner discriminate against an employee as to his or her employment because such employee has claimed or attempted to claim compensation from such employer, or because he or she has testified or is about to testify in a proceeding under this chapter and no other valid reason is shown to exist for such action by the employer.

Any complaint alleging such an unlawful discriminatory practice must be filed within two years of the commission of such practice. Upon finding that an employer has violated this section, the board shall make an order that any employee so discriminated against shall be restored to employment or otherwise restored to the position or privileges he or she would have had but for the discrimination and shall be compensated by his or her employer for any loss of compensation arising out of such discrimination together with such fees or allowances for services rendered by an attorney or licensed representative as fixed by the board. Any employer who violates this section shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars, as may be determined by the board. All such penalties shall be paid into the state treasury and be applicable to the expenses of administering this chapter. All penalties, compensation and fee or allowances shall be paid solely by the employer. The employer alone and not its carrier shall be liable for such penalties and payments. Any provision in an insurance policy undertaking to relieve the employer from liability for such penalties and payments shall be void.

An employer found to be in violation of this section and the aggrieved employee must report to the board as to the manner of the employer's compliance within thirty days of receipt of a final determination. In case of failure to report on compliance, or failure to comply with an order or penalty of the board within thirty days after the order or notice of penalty is served, except where timely application to the board for a modification, rescission or review of such order or penalty has been filed under section twenty three of this chapter, the Chair in any such case or, on the Chair's consent, any party may enforce the order or penalty in a manner as an award of compensation.

Sec. 241. Application of other provisions of chapter. All the power and duties conferred or imposed upon the Chair and board by this chapter that are necessary for the administration of this article and not inconsistent are, to that extent, hereby made applicable to this article; and none of the other provisions of this chapter pertaining to benefits provided by other articles of this chapter shall be construed to be applicable to this article. The provisions of section one hundred twenty of this chapter shall be applicable as fully as if set in this article, except that penalties paid into the state treasury pursuant thereto under this article shall be applied toward the expenses of administering this article.

Sec. 111. Information to be furnished by employer. Every employer shall furnish the Chair, upon request, any information required by him/her to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The Chair or board may examine under oath any employer, officer, agent or employee. An employer or an employee receiving from the Chair a blank with directions to file the same shall cause the same to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly all questions therein, or if unable to do so, shall give good and sufficient reasons for such failure. Answers to such questions shall be subscribed by the employer or the employee and affirmed as true under the penalties of perjury and returned to the Chair within the period fixed by the Chair therefor.

GENERAL AFFIDAVIT

As a resident in the county New York within the state of New York, Brian Burke personally approached me, the undersigned Notary, and made his sworn testimony in a general affidavit, that the following statement is completely factual and true to the best of his belief and knowledge.

Statement:

Under Penalty of Perjury; the Affiant, Brian Burke  hereby states that the forgoing is true and correct: On September 22, 2007, while operating a train on the L line, Affiant sustained a severe electrical burn to his right hand and thumb caused by NYCTA equipment. This established Workers Compensation case No. 00742282. Affiant missed 3 months of work, and that case was not controverted, settled and closed. On August 22 2009, while ordered to climb up the side of a refuse train car in order to release a signal, an injury was sustained to the right hand and wrist. An Injury On Duty form was filled out and physical therapy for the injury was undergone. Workers Compensation case G0183772 is still open. Since reporting these injuries waves of Retaliation and Harassment orchestrated by NYCTA supervisors, managers and attorneys ensued until present. 1) Train Service Supervisor LoBianco would in 2008 on a monthly basis harass, insult and interfere with safe train operation. A PERB case was filed and this harassment and retaliation for filing a WC claim eventually stopped. 2) In 2011 and 2012 NYCTA began assigning Affiant less senior, more difficult road jobs as adverse job actions in order to retaliate against Affiant for filing Workers Compensation claims. Affiant was required to pick a less advantageous job in order to end this harassment and retaliation. 3)
Immediately on starting this new road job, December 2012, Affiant was daily harassed by ATD Odums. An additional PERB and NYS Human rights case was filed. Affiant was again required to again pick a less advantageous job in order to end hostile workplace activity. Three Perjurious "affidavits" were submitted by Ms. Nolan. 4) On April 14 and 15 2014, NYCTA Attorney Kristen Nolan, with the assistance of Labor Relations Director Leonard Akselrod, orchestrated and unleashed a campaign of terror against Affiant by sending waves of Train Service Supervisors to assault, harass and interfere with safe train operation while trains were in motion over those two days. A proximately caused injury ensued. New Workers Compensation case G1100520, was filed. 5) In said case, NYCTA Suborned Perjury in order to prevail. For example, a TSS correctly testified he was standing three inches away during his attack and was then ordered by NYCTA Counsel to change it to the impossible 'three feet' perjury. 6) On returning to work in March 2015, now as a Station Agent due to those malicious acts by NYCTA, Ms. Nolan brutally defamed and harassed Affiant in a false damaging article published in the NY Post on March 29, 2015 and online. This violated Transit Policy and NYS Laws, including WCL § 120. For a week the false defamatory article was posted and distributed in Claimant's workplace at NYCTA Learning Center in Brooklyn. An additional proximately caused injury ensued and Workers Compensation case # G1278038 was filed. On appearing before the same WC Administrative Law Judge, Patricia Harris, Affiant/Claimant was adjudicated the prevailing party. Given that it was now more difficult for NYCTA to hide their orchestrated harassment of Claimant or Suborn additional Perjury Judge Harris could now see the obvious ongoing criminality of NYCTA. In the previous WC case G1100520 the three TSS's who testified actually testilied, in order to save their jobs and other consideration. If they told the truth they would have been immediately terminated. The reason the harassing actors chose an operating cab of a subway train in motion in order to commit assaults and retaliation for filing WC cases is that there can be no witnesses or the use of any 'electronic devices' i.e. recording equipment. 5) In case G1278038 NYCTA again attempted Employer WC Fraud by claiming to administrators that this case was a 'duplicate file'. Like with the Perjury NYCTA knew this to be false and an unlawful attempt to deny benefits. The case was temporarily closed as a result of their fraud. 6) NYCTA has acknowledged in PERB case U-34459, which is before that Board, that lawfully earned wages constituting over 21K has been criminally withheld due to the filing of G1270838. This constitutes unlawful Constructive Termination, especially when considered with the ongoing pattern of harassment and hostile workplace. Affiant Requests the WCB take Judicial Notice of U-34459. Transit has acknowledged that their criminal harassment of and retaliation against this Civil Servant has been and is for the Protected Activity of filing legitimate Workers Compensation claims, wherein the injuries themselves have been substantiated by a WC ALJ as being caused by orchestrated deliberate adverse job actions/criminal harassments by NYCTA.
